

DIRECTOR'S BIOGRAPHY

Christos Karteris is director, born in 1989 and living in Athens, Greece. His filmography includes short films that have been presented at international and Greek film festivals. In 2021, he was awarded with the "Best Short Documentary Award" at the Iris Awards of the Hellenic Film Academy and in 2020 with the Best Documentary Award at the 43rd International Drama Short Film Festival for the short film "Teo, my neighbor". "Beware of the Southern stars" is his fourth short film.