

ARJUN TALWAR

Arjun Talwar grew up in Delhi. He studied Mathematics before joining the cinematography department of the Polish National Film School in Łódź. His short films have screened at festivals such as Visions du Réel, FID Marseille, Tampere and others. In 2018, Arjun's first feature documentary A Donkey Called Geronimo premiered at DOK Leipzig and was released in cinemas. His latest film, Letters from Wolf Street, is a satirical essay about Poland from an immigrant perspective. It premiered in the Panorama section of Berlinale, where it was nominated for the Berlinale Documentary Award.

Filmography

2025 LETTERS FROM WOLF STREET (feature, doc)
2018 A DONKEY CALLED GERONIMO (feature debut, doc, co-dir. Bigna Tomschin)
2018 DEPORTATION (short, fiction, co-dir. Sandro Wysocki)
2014 WHERE I CAN'T BE FOUND (short, doc)
2014 HABITAT (short, doc, co-dir. Oliver Krüger)