

Biografie Alexandru Mavrodineanu

Alexandru Mavrodineanu is a director and producer currently based in Bucharest. After graduating high school in Italy he moved to Berlin where he completed his studies in 1999. After returning to Romania, he directed two short films "The boxing lesson" and "Music in the blood" - for which he won several international awards. His latest production "Caisa", a feature length documentary, was selected on several international festivals and won the prestigious national Gopo award for best Documentary.

Filmografie Alexandru Mavrodineanu

2025 Love Hurts (feature lenght Documentary)
2018 Caisa (feature lenght Documentary)
2016 One night for Love (fiction short film)
2014 The Birdman (feature lenght Documentary)
2010 Music in the blood (fiction short film)
2007 The boxing lesson (fiction short film)
2005 Oven backed apples (fiction short film)